GREATER NORWALK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WELCOMES KEVIN WING, NORWALK NATIVE AND LOCAL BUSINESS OWNER AS NEW DIRECTOR OF MEMBERSHIP

September 17, 2024 (Norwalk, CT) — The Greater Norwalk Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the hiring of Kevin Wing as its new Director of Membership. Kevin brings a wealth of experience in customer service, operations management, and event planning, coupled with a proven ability to build relationships and drive business growth.

With a strong background that includes managing and co-owning Hoi An Pho and Grill in Norwalk, and working with Connecticut’s Office of Tourism, Kevin’s expertise will help foster the Chamber’s mission to support the local business community. Kevin is a results-oriented professional with leadership skills and strategic insight that make him a valuable asset as the Chamber expands its benefits, services, and impact in the Greater Norwalk area.

“We are thrilled to welcome Kevin to our team,” said Shannon O’Toole-Giandurco, President of the Greater Norwalk Chamber. “His intimate knowledge of the Norwalk community paired with his experience and passion for community engagement align with our goals for the future. We’re looking forward to the contributions he’ll make as we continue to support Norwalk businesses.”

“Kevin’s connection to the local business community make him an outstanding addition to our Chamber team,” said Kristin Okesson, Chair of the Board of Directors, Greater Norwalk Chamber. “As a resident and small business owner, his understanding of Norwalk will be pivotal as we continue to enhance our services and build valuable partnerships that will bring new opportunities to our members.”

Kevin Wing’s career spans over a decade of successful leadership, market research, and community involvement. His education includes an Associate’s in Business Administration from Norwalk Community College and a Bachelor’s in Business and Technology from the University of Connecticut.
